UNLOCK THE EXPERIENCE!

GUIDED TOURS OF HISTORIC SYNAGOGUES:

Lloyd Street Synagogue (1845) – America's third oldest standing synagogue – and B'nai Israel (1876). Learn about the immigrant communities that built, adapted, and worshipped within these historic sites.

Sunday - Thursday; 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., 2:00 p.m.,
Sunday - Thursday: 3:00pm LSS Only
Sunday: 4:00pm LSS Only

Our "All American Synagogue" is a proud partner with the Carroll Mansion, designated "The All American House" for 2016.

SPECIAL TREATS:

Beyond Chicken Soup: JEWS & MEDICINE in America

Beyond Chicken Soup: Jews & Medicine in America examines how medicine has shaped the way Jews are seen—by others and themselves. Open March 13, 2016 - January 16, 2017.

Heroic Remedies: The Henrietta Szold Story

This fall we debuts the incredible story of a rabbi's daughter who broke with the traditional role of women to help strengthen her people, at home and abroad. An advocate for education, Zionism, and health care, Henrietta Szold was a champion of community organizing and Jewish engagement.

IMMERSIVE EXHIBITS:

Voices of Lombard Street lets you walk through more than a century of change in East Baltimore, visiting the homes and businesses of people who lived and worked in the neighborhood.

The Synagogue Speaks! tells the story of the Lloyd Street Synagogue and allows you to see how the Jewish and Roman Catholic congregations that once occupied this building transformed the space and community.
