UNLOCK THE EXPERIENCE!

GUIDED TOURS OF HISTORIC SYNAGOGUES:

Lloyd Street Synagogue (1845) – America’s third oldest standing synagogue – and B’nai Israel (1876). Learn about the immigrant communities that built, adapted, and worshipped within these historic sites.

Sunday - Thursday; 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., 2:00 p.m.,

Sunday - Thursday; 3:00pm LSS Only

Sunday; 4:00pm LSS Only

Our “All American Synagogue” is a proud partner with the Carroll Mansion, designated “The All American House” for 2016.

SPECIAL TREATS:

Beyond Chicken Soup: Jews & Medicine in America examines how medicine has shaped the way Jews are seen—by others and themselves. Open March 13, 2016 - January 16, 2017.

Join our JMM History Detective for this special program on Sundays at 3pm from May 1 through Aug. 28.

We’ll explore the material culture of Maryland’s oldest Jewish synagogue, including some unanswered questions about its most important ritual objects.

IMMERSIVE EXHIBITS:

Voices of Lombard Street lets you walk through more than a century of change in East Baltimore, visiting the homes and businesses of people who lived and worked in the neighborhood.

The Synagogue Speaks! tells the story of the Lloyd Street Synagogue and allows you to see how the Jewish and Roman Catholic congregations that once occupied this building transformed the space and community.
