Non-Profit Organizations: There is a 20% fee reduction (on the commercial rate) for all categories.

Object Photography: There is a $25 flat fee for object photography conducted by the Jewish Museum of Maryland. Additional charges may apply for professional photography.

Rush Fees: There is a $25 flat rush fee for all orders requested with less than 2 weeks advanced notice. JMM does not promise that rush requests will be accommodated within the requestee's time-frame.

* Items used for publication in doctoral dissertations and masters' theses will be charged under the Non-Profit Organization pay structure with the understanding that all other permissions for items from the JMM are secured and the Copyright and Use Restrictions contract is signed. JMM will be given one copy of the dissertation or thesis for inclusion in the JMM Library. All shipping costs will be undertaken by the patron.

+ All users of JMM images will contribute a finished copy of the work to the JMM. All costs of shipping will be undertaken by the patron.

Submit the required forms and payment information to the JMM by mail, email, or fax.

The Jewish Museum of Maryland

Contract for Photographic Reproduction – Copyright and Use Restrictions

Conditions of Reproduction

1. All photographs and digital images are the property of The Jewish Museum of Maryland (JMM). Reproduction or redistribution of these is forbidden without the express written consent of the Archives staff of JMM (see Application for Permission to Publish).
2. Photographic materials do not circulate and must be used in the Anne Adalman Goodwin Memorial Library at The Jewish Museum of Maryland. No prints, negatives, transparencies or slides will be loaned for copying.
3. No refunds will be given for photographs ordered from the Collections but not used by the patron.
4. If a negative is required to create a print, but is not a part of the collection, the JMM Archives will create a 4"x5" copy negative to fill a print order. The patron will assume the cost for each negative. All copy negatives will be retained by the JMM Archives. Copy negatives will not be sold to the patron.
5. Reproduction may be refused in cases of donor restriction or copyright law violation. The JMM also reserves the right to review exhibit or publication context before granting permission for publication.
6. JMM does not claim to control the copyright for all materials in its various collections. The publishing party assumes all responsibility for clearing reproduction rights and for any infringement of the United States copyright law. JMM has no publicly available information concerning the existence and/or whereabouts of copyright holders (see Title 17 of the US Copyright Law).
7. Photographs used for exhibition or publication (in print or online) must be credited "Courtesy of The Jewish Museum of Maryland" followed by the accession number. JMM also reserves the right to require that the photographer's name, when known, be included in the credit. Payment of the fee does not exempt the user from the credit line requirement.
8. Permission to use a photographic reproduction is granted for one-time use only. Users must re-apply for use in any future editions, foreign language editions, paperback editions, web publishing, web sites, or other projects. The use of the reproduction in publicity for the initial project is considered a second use and requires separate permission.
9. Unless authorized in writing by the JMM Archives and noted in the credit line, images will not be shown with added coloring, superimposed or transposed, or altered or cropped in any way that significantly changes the meaning or context of the image, or compromises its authenticity as an historical document. Any alteration must be approved, in writing, by staff from the JMM Archives prior to publication.
10. One copy of any publication that uses reproductions from the JMM Archives shall be donated to JMM for inclusion in the Library Collection. This includes books, brochures, advertising materials, periodical issues, exhibition catalogs, CD, DVD and videotape productions, but shall not include motion picture films on reel. Shipping costs are to be borne by the patron and not by JMM.
11. The user agrees to defend, indemnify, and save and hold harmless the Jewish Museum of Maryland, its Library and Archives, and The Associated, and their employees or designates, from any and all costs, expense, damage and liability arising because of any claim whatsoever that may be presented by anyone for loss or damage or other relief occasioned or caused by the release of said photographs to the undersigned and their use in any manner, including their inspection, publication, reproduction, duplication or printing by anyone for any purpose whatsoever.
12. No reproductions generated by the JMM Archives will be deposited in any other library, archives, or repository.

Fees for Use of Photographs

13. Reproductions of photographs for commercial publications, exhibitions, product presentations, video production, interior design, advertising, or similar for-profit work done by consultants, or commercial design firms for government or non-profit agencies, or for personal use are subject to fees. Fees are for one-time and non-exclusive use and are in addition to any reproduction costs (see Schedule of Fees).
14. A 20% discount is offered on reproduction fees for 501(c)(3) non-profits who are not using commercial design firms or consultants for the designated project.
15. Manipulating or altering, reusing, displaying an inaccurate credit line, failure to receive proper permission or failure to protect a digital image from theft by not attaching a caption to the image itself will require a payment in the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100) per image as liquidated damages and not as a penalty in view of the difficulty of assessing actual damages for this breach.
